

Abington History Group

Publications currently available:

Village history Trails – Little and Great Abington

Aspects of Abington History - 1 (2013) containing articles on:

- The Inns of Bourn Bridge
- World War I rolls of honour and memorials for the Abingtons
- The People of the Abingtons who served in WW1 1914-1918
- Turnpikes and Tolls in and around Abington
- Abington cottages as painted in 1932 by Bertha Clark Kennedy
- Newmarket and Chesterford Railway 1845-1851
- Hettie Pavitt's childhood reminiscences before WW2
- River Course and Parish Boundaries between the parishes
- What the papers said 1857-1913 (British Newspaper Archive)

Aspects of Abington History - 2 (2015) containing articles on:

- Proposal for a First World War aerodrome at Grange Farm
- The Railway Inn, Pampisford, much used by Abington villagers
- The Domesday Book and the Abingtons
- Five men from a Cutter family in the First World War
- Memories of the village by Muriel Taylor from the 1930s
- Cambridgeshire Cottage Improvement Society, Abington Cottages
- Joseph Cutter who worked at Grange Farm for 72 years
- Attempted murder in Little Abington in 1866
- A malting in Little Abington
- Rev Brandon Whittington, vicar of the Abingtons 1906 to 1943

The group has databases of:

- over 2000 images of Abington, old and new
- parish register entries for Great and Little Abington of baptisms, marriages, burials from about 1600 to 1900
- census records for Great and Little Abington 1841 to 1911
- records of Abington people, places and events from historical documents and maps